MASTER OF MANAGEMENT

We're excited to share a unique study opportunity that combines online and on-shore learning to maximise the value you get from a postgraduate student experience.

Launch your Master of Management (180 credits) with live online classes from the comfort of your home, with the flexibility to balance the first 60 credits with work, family, and everyday life.

You will then progress to complete the remaining 120 credits on-campus in New Zealand through immersive projects, industry connections, and face-to-face mentoring.

Pathways

Either complete a coursework programme or focus on a research pathway through a thesis, dissertation, or applied research project. In the research pathway you can build advanced expertise in a specialised field such as Marketing, Information systems, Digital Business, Hospitality, or Finance.

Begin from anywhere and graduate with the networks, confidence, and international experience that set careers in motion.

Request a personalised study and fees plan today!

Academic entry requirement

A Bachelor's degree or postgraduate qualification in business or related subject with a minimum B grade average, or have the acquired skills and knowledge through relevant work or professional experience.

English language entry

IELTS (Academic) score of 6.5 with no band score lower than 6.0 or equivalent.

Tuition fee

Approximately NZ $8,320 (first 60 credits – online), inclusive of $120 International Admin fee and $200 Student Services fee).

Online-first pathway: Complete the first 60 credits online at a reduced tuition fee, then receive a partial refund and a study grant when you enrol on campus for the final 120 credits—lowering your overall programme cost by up to NZ$6,000.
